s follows: Its age was two years, and it was so exceedingly god and baggard appearance, and it was so exceedingly goor that it was computed the flesh upon its bones would got weigh a single pound. It was so remarkably weak, but it could not articulate its mother's name above a bout to assume the Editorship of a new Literary Week s to be called " The Literary World; or Author's, Pubsher's and Reader's Gazette." Mr. D. is one of our f & Free College or Academy, and for necessary addi-

According on the formation of the section of the process of the pr

DIED:

COMMERCIAL AND MONEY MATTERS.

The Stock market is rather buoyant excepting Harlem, which went down to 50%. The fancles generally under protest. They have been and are redeemed at the Bank and the agency in this city.

Thursday evening in consequence of a misunderstanding about the Hall.

MERCANTILE LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.—We were into the street this morning from Lafsyette Is. It is well calculated to pass without detection. Letter D, vignette a female and two small boys; paper thin, signing filling up and engraving good.

The statement annexed gives a general summary of the Foreign Commerce of the port of Baltimore, for the year ending on the 31st December, 1846:

Imports in American vessels. $3,224,710

67,680

to those already established.

Mr. Hangis, from the Special Committee on the resolution for the establishment of a High School in this City, 1844. $55,849,448 $3,886,766 $4,015,919 60, City for the benefit of pupils who have been educated a the New York Public Schools, presented a long and Tatal alludes to the advantages possessed, in Boston and other of our sister cities, the sny, &c. The two colleges in this City lege and the University of New-York) out 245 scholars. This is owing to the support of the desired for the state of t

	Rec'd since 1st	Singe 1st	Since Ist
Ports.	Sept. 1846.	Sept.1845.	Sept.1844.
New-Orleans, Jan. 9.	331,336	416,985	417,496
fobile, Jan. 9	109,694	154,344	135,808
lorida, Jan. 9	30,183	36,592	52,531
exas, Dec. 1	1,773	3,941	5,000
leorgia, Jan. 15	128,699	64,527	101,950
South Carolina, Jan.	16 183,999	104.937	177,052
forth Carolina, Jan.	16 1.197	3,219	2,994
irg inia. Jan. 1	4,780	6,200	6,000
	784,591	790,745	901,831

rida and Savannah.

hands is believed to be much smaller than for several years past.

LEATHER—There continues to be an upward tendency in the prices of all descriptions, and our quotations of Sole are now fully two cents above the lowest point.

FRUIT—Sales have been made of 600 has Bunch Raisins at 1 50; 300 hf do 80, supposed $5 and 2 50.

TOBACCO—There is a good demand for the season, fine qualities. Kentucky particularly, being scarce and much wanted. The sales include 100 hids Kentucky at 3/48 cents: 20 cases Connecticut, 7; and 30 do, Florida, 15/25, 4 mos.

GROCERIES—For three days—Since our last the market for Sugars has been rather dull, but in prices we have no change to notice. Of new crop Havana, 126 bass White and Brown has been received, which we believe is earlier than for many years past. The sales include 180 hids Cuba Muscovado at 6 cents, less 3 $F$ cent for cash: 450 New-Orleans, 64.77; 30 fres, New-Orleans Clarified, $1; 600 boxes Brown Havana, 63.75; the latter price for 50 of the new crop; 200 White do 75.28; 4 mos, and 16 casks (11,000 fb) Putch Refined Loaf, on terms not made public. There has continued a fair demand for Coffee since our last without change in prices.

Tent No. 67, L. 0. of R.—The members of Coven and Tent are exmestly requested to sittend its regular me citing this evening. January 21, at their Tent Room, No. 6 1 Rowery, when business of vital moment will be list ded for them. Among other business the proposed new Conan tutton of the Order will be presented and discussed. It is hoped even brother will be presented and discussed. It is hoped even brother will be present. Jul 1872.

The Geography—The Last Claus at the City.—Mr. Hittproposes to give one move free Lecture and hessen upon his New System of teas thing Geography this reaching. Thursday, 18th at 7 o'clocit, at 620 Broad way near Bleeck er at. All desirous of stem thing to ourse of lessons will improve this opportunity. This class will be held three evenings in the week—Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

Lef Mercantile Library and Reading Reom. Cleaks initiation fee St. half-yearly does St. Merchants and others, yearly subscription, St. C. L. EVERRIT, 118 TThasSwits.

and others, yearly subscription, $3. C. L. EVERETT, 116 TTRASS wis

For Challenge by a Mechanic to protessional Reporters and short-hand writers, for a tria in rapid writing. Mr. Hornsby, (from Europe,) teacher of Pinman's Phonography, will deliver lecture on the art of Writing accerding to sound, on Friday evening, January 22, at Clinton Hall. The Lecture will embrace the principles of Phonography, its applicability to verbating reporting, and its general utility. Part of a Lecture delivered on Sunday evening last by Rev. Mr. Bellows, will be read by Mr. dering the evening last by Rev. Mr. Bellows, will be read by mr. dering the evening. Mr. Holman, a mechanic of Brocklyn, will exhibit his proficiency in this art by reading any senience that the audience may desire, in the Lectur, Greek, herew, English, or any other language. The whole audience will be taught to read short senience written in the new alphabet: Specifience of rechaim Reporting will be exhibited and an opportunity afforded any gentlemen to test any system of short hand with Phonography at the close. If a sufficient number offer themselves, for instruction a class will be formed, to receive 12 Lecture to commence at a past 7. Admission 25 Cents.

General Notices.

Bituations, &c. Wanted.

CHEAP BOOKS. D'ISRAELI'S NOVELS complete in 1 vol. $1.
Fielding's Select Works, complete in 1 vol. $1.
Niebuur's Rome, complete in 2 vols. $2.25.
Burn's Works, complete in 1 vol. $1.25.
Dica's Works, 4 vols. in 1, $1.25.
Shakspeare Illustrated, complete in 2 vols. $2.
For sale iv I. L. BLOOD, Agent, 10t Nassuret, d? 2naw MWSSs.

Secretary of the production of the state of the production of the Anction Bales.